The Essence of the Spa

While everyone would benefit from a few days of spa immersion, you don't have to visit a destination spa to live a spa lifestyle. Consider these principles, which are taught in most destination spas, and start applying them to your own life.

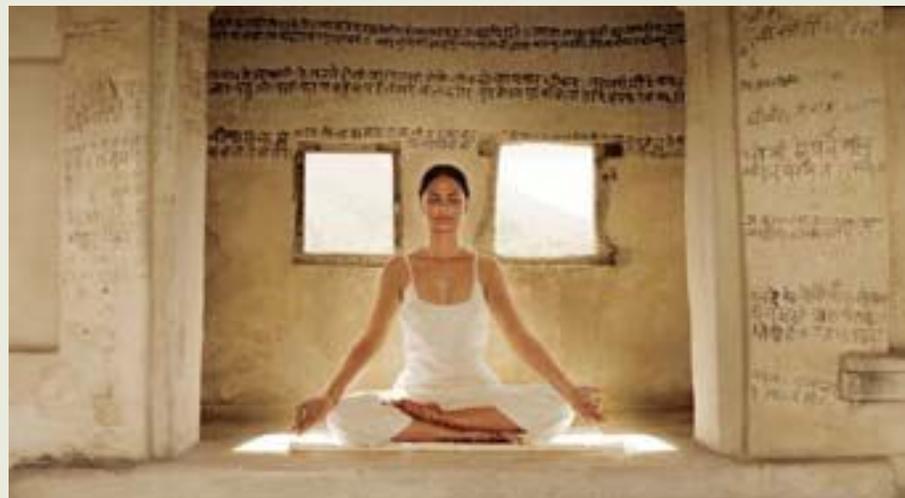

Slow down. Spa remind us to stop and reflect. Meditate. Breathe. Just be. You don't have to schedule a spa appointment to do this. Schedule an appointment with yourself and spend some time doing.....Nothing.

Take care of you. If you don't, who will? Spa teach us not only how to live longer but how to live better. Taking care of your body, mind, and spirit is an investment in the future.

Enjoy life. Give yourself permission. It's okay to be pampered. It's okay to indulge. Seek balance, not boundaries.

If the above homework does not come easily to you, there is private tutoring available at Balensi's Spa.

Prepare yourself for Pampering
